

Workshop - Exploration of Funding Opportunities for the Tshele Hills Oil Storage Project

Botswana Oil Limited (BOL) is a company owned by the Botswana Government and mandated to ensure the security and efficiency of petroleum products for the country, manage state owned strategic fuel reserve facilities as well as facilitate the participation of Citizen Owned Oil Companies in the oil and gas sector. In line with its mandate, BOL will host a one-day workshop with an aim to sensitize organizations in the financial sector on how and where they can participate in the Tshele Hills project in line with available opportunities. Further, the workshop also seeks to build understanding and, consequently, capacity on the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) process for financial institutions as the Tshele Hills project is implemented as a PPP.
